Our Garden

O God, be gentle to this garden spot.
Here have I rested on a summer day,
Drinking the wine of the forget-me-not,
Breaking the bread that full-blown roses lay
Before my hungering eyes, filling my ear
With bells of tulips ringing bright and clear.

Here have I slept when night came to each flower,
Wrapped in these shadows, pillowed at my head
With velvet pansies through the dark's blue hour;
Here have I dreamed, and I was comforted.
O kindly Father, write upon your scroll
This is a petalled tavern for the soul.

—DANIEL WHITEHEAD HICKY.
